

A Community Reading of Martin Luther King's
"Beyond Vietnam: A Time to Break Silence"
Fifty-seven years later, on April 4, 2024

Thursday, April 4, 2024. 10:30 AM to 6 PM
At the Iowa City Public Library, Meeting Room A
Martin Luther King delivered his most controversial speech on April 4, 1967. One year later, on April 4, 1968, he was assassinated in Memphis.

Come read with us his 1967 Speech, and excerpts from his last speech on April 3, 1968,
"I've Been to the Mountaintop".

Free and open to the public. Come listen, or read a portion. The presentation will be repeated 8 times. Come and go as you wish.

Sponsored by Veterans For Peace

Chapter #161

Eastern Iowa